CORONERS' BILLS.

STATE OF NEW JERSEY, }
CAMDEN COUNTY, } ss.

I, J. A. Armstrong, one of the Coroners of the county of Camden, having notice of the death of Lewis J. Mills, and having viewed the dead body of the said L. J. Mills, and made inquiry respecting his death, do hereby certify, that I am satisfied no guilt attaches to any person or persons by reason of the said death, and that an inquest is unnecessary. That the said deceased has no friends who appear to take charge of and bury said body, nor, as far as I can ascertain, has he left property sufficient and within reach of the Overseer of the Poor, to defray the expenses thereof. Therefore, I have buried the same.

Given under my hand and seal this second day of June, A. D., eighteen hundred and seventy-three.
